This proposal was never formally acted on by either the CIA Selection Board or the CIA Career Council. After the "relatives box-top" episode (see Transcript of the Career Council 7th meeting 24 Feb 1955 p 20) this idea was abandoned and the letter from (attached to memo from H.G. Reynolds to members of Selection Board and Career Council) which was a non notification of the letter from over proposed by Reynolds on 19 October was not initiated. This was finally approved by White, the last of the 10 to act on 25 March.

The undassified letter from 17 19 October was thrown out by the Career Council at its meeting on 21 December 1954.
